Their Stories: You're the Hero

Hopefully you've had a chance to read our email that shares our students', alumni, and community members' stories. If you haven't read the stories yet, you can pick up the link to them on our home page at stanfordcatholic.org

We Are Stanford's Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

 Sacraments of Initiation

The sacrament of Confirmation was celebrated by this weekend by community members

- Ebie Albrecht
- Melanie Clark
- Aerin Maliuanag
- Audrey Maliuanag
- Ella Montessa
- Tim Ruzon
- Ana Schoenen

Please remember these young people in your prayers as they strive to live out their calling to be fully initiated Catholic disciples.

We also welcome Chao Wang into the Church through Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation.

Catholic Leadership Skills Series

Wednesdays at 7:30pm (Pacific)

Upcoming sessions:

- Critical Conversations & Empathy, June 2nd
- Leading Teams & Building Team Culture, June 6th

Open to all members of the Catholic Community at Stanford. These sessions will include theory, testimonies, and practice of the skills that you need to be a great Catholic leader. These are lifelong skills that will help in many aspects of your life at and beyond Stanford.

You can come to one or more or all of the six sessions. If you have any questions, contact Steven Howell at sthowell@alumni.stanford.edu

* Lamplighters: Lourdes Alonso and Rosie La Puma Lebel

Monday, June 7, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom—see weekly email for meeting info

Join us for an exciting conversation with our 'soon-to-depart' Lourdes Alonso, Campus Minister for CC@S, and Rosie La Puma Lebel, Stanford Law Student. Lourdes is passionate about connecting with students and accompanying them as they engage with their faith. She is also immersed in Catholic Relief Services helping to launch our CRS chapter which includes members of our entire community to mobilize us around issues in support of those in need around the world.

First Reading Acts 2:1–11

*When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.
And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.
Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them,
and a tongue rested on each of them.
All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.*

*Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.
And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because all heard them speaking in their own languages.
Amazed and astonished, they asked,
“Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
And how is it that we hear, each of us,
in our own language?
Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia,
Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene,
and visitors from Rome, both Jews and converts, Cretans and Arabs—
in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”*

Psalm (Outdoor Masses) (Ps. 104)

(spoken response)

R: Lord send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, O my soul.
O Lord my God, you are very great.
O Lord, how manifold are your works!
the earth is full of your creatures.
(R.)

When you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth.
(R.)

May the glory of the Lord endure forever;
may the Lord rejoice in his works.
May my meditation be pleasing to him,
for I rejoice in the Lord.
(R.)

Psalm (4:30 Live Stream) "Send Out Your Spirit" (Ps. 104)

Refrain: All

O God, send out your Spirit; re - new the face of the earth. O God, send out your Spirit; re - new the face of the earth.

- 1) We bless you, O God, for you are so great.
Your Spirit uncovers hidden beauty and grace.
Though times we deny all the pain and the tears, your Spirit empowers us and soon we face our fear.
- 2) Ev'ry prayer we pray, sacred word, sacred rite, is for the ones who are left waiting outside.
Ev'ry sermon we preach, ev'ry Spirit-filled tune;
Love says, "Remember why we do the things we do."

Words based on Psalm 104. Words and music © 1996, 1999, Jesse Manibusan. Published by Spirit & Song®, a division of OCP. All rights reserved.

Second Reading Galatians 5:16–25

Brothers and sisters:

*Live by the Spirit,
and do not gratify the desires of the flesh.
For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit,
and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh;
for these are opposed to each other,
to prevent you from doing what you want.*

*But if you are led by the Spirit,
you are not subject to the law.
Now the works of the flesh are obvious:
fornication, impurity, licentiousness,
idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife,
jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions,
factions, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these.*

*I am warning you, as I warned you before:
those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.*

*By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness,
gentleness, and self-control.*

*There is no law against such things.
And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.
If we live by the Spirit,
let us also be guided by the Spirit.*

 A Tear & A Blessing from the Pastor

I can't imagine the Catholic Community without Lourdes Alonso. Some of you have already heard but sadly Lourdes Alonso and John Aguayo are moving to Austin, Texas after Commencement. While it is a new adventure for them, it is a painful loss for us. Her smile has welcomed so many, her passion for justice has enlighten many a mind, her compassion has dried so many tears and her counsel has been a guiding star. There is no adequate way to thank her for her faith and joy, other than to say we love her.

John's and Lourdes' generosity have fed us, would that we could have given them the ability to remain in California. They had been searching for a house for so long, but today's market is a wall. A new work offering for John simply has to be seized. Ministry is a gift. They have given and given. Their marriage has inspired many. We will be poorer for the loss of this most amazing couple.

Vaya con Dios... you take our hearts with you!

—Fr. Xavier

New announcement

* Are You Graduating?

Your Catholic Community at Stanford wants to celebrate your graduation with you on Sunday, June 6, at our 10:30am outdoor Mass on campus. RSVP is required—a link will be available on our website starting Monday, May 31. Come and say goodbye to the rest of us. Congratulations.

First announced May 2

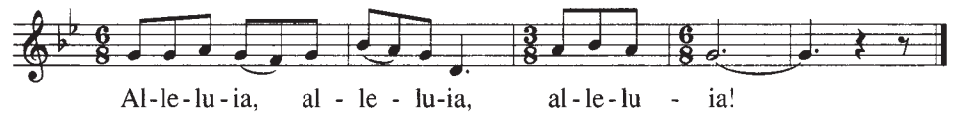

* Infant/Child Baptisms

We are currently scheduling baptisms for infants/children for our registered parishioners. If you are seeking baptism for your child, please contact Teresa Pleins, tpleins@stanford.edu. The baptisms will be held outdoors off-campus in a lovely garden area.

Pre-Cana Preparation

Are you getting married in your home parish or elsewhere and cannot find a required pre-marriage workshop or an Engaged Encounter weekend available? If you are a student, faculty, staff member or registered member of CC@S (including alumni – all must be registered as CC@S members for at least a year) and are in need of pre-marriage prep, contact Father Xavier Lavagetto (xavierop@stanford.edu) about the possibility of doing an online program. For further information about the canonical prep requirements for a Catholic wedding, please visit our website.

Gospel Acclamation “Easter Alleluia”

Words and Arrangement: Marty Haugen. © 1986, GIA Publications, Inc.

Gospel John 20:19–23

*It was evening on the day Jesus rose from the dead,
the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the authorities.*

*Jesus came and stood among them and said,
“Peace be with you.”*

*After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side.
Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.*

*Jesus said to them again,
“Peace be with you.*

As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

*If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them;
if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”*

You Can Help Your Marriage – Do you feel alone? Are you frustrated or angry with each other? Do you argue ... or have you just stopped talking to each other? Does talking about it only make it worse? Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) helps couples through difficult times in their marriages. This program has helped 10's of 1000's of couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. For confidential information about or to register for the June Virtual Marriage Program beginning with a weekend on June 24-27, 2021 call 408-605-4998, email: SanJose@RetroCA.com or visit our website at <http://www.HelpOurMarriage.org>

Join the Live-Stream Choir!

At the end of our live streamed Masses, singers and instrumentalists from all over the world join together to lead our community in song.

Would you like to “join” the choir?

It's not difficult and you don't have to be a recording star to join in. The music is pre-recorded and then mixed together, so your voice is blended with others.

God is calling us in many different ways these days. Perhaps Live-stream choir is a way to help others pray through song about mercy, grace, forgiveness, and hope.
