* Lamplighters: Tiffany Steinwert

Monday, May 23, 7:00pm–8:00pm (Pacific) online via Zoom

Join us for an engaging conversation with Tiffany Steinwert, Dean of the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Stanford.

Tiffany has a wealth of experience in higher education and offers insights into the changing landscape of spiritual life at a university.

Was she surprised by the ‘Stanford student’? Has her vision changed as she moves into her fourth year as our Dean? How did the pandemic change her perspective on spiritual life of students? What and who were her most impactful influencers in this chosen career? How can students enrich their religious and spiritual experiences while navigating this ‘secular’ university?

Gospel John 10:27–30

“My sheep listen to my voice. I know them and they know me. I give them eternal life... No one will take them away from me. My Father is greater than all... The Father and I are one.”

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:] who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Offertory “Like a Child Rests”

- 1) My God, I am not proud. I do not look for things too great.
- 2) My God, I trust in you. You care for me, you give me peace.
- 3) O children, trust in God, now and always trust in God.

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people's devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.
