Their Stories: You're the Hero

Hopefully you've had a chance to read our annual impact report that shares our students', alumni, and community members' stories. If you haven't read the stories yet, find them on our website:

We Are Stanford's Guest

Catholic Community at Stanford is a parish and campus ministry operating as a guest of Stanford University. Stanford graciously offers us the use of several offices as well as access to hold Masses on campus. We are extremely grateful. However, we do not receive financial support from Stanford University. Our expenses are funded from individual gifts to CC@S.

Volunteer with High School Students

Our community's newly forming high school group needs volunteer leaders!

If you have experience working with high school youth groups and would like to make a difference in a young person's faith life, please contact Teresa, tpleins@stanford.edu

Work with Children

Our parish religious education program involves children ages 3-junior high school. We are looking for assistants to lead prayer or assist the catechists.

The program is Montessori based.

You will fall in love with the kids—guaranteed!

Sessions begin in late September.

Contact Teresa for more info, tpleins@stanford.edu

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME — SEPTEMBER 25, 2022

Gathering "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"

1. I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "Come
2. I heard the voice of Je - sus say, "I un - to me and rest; Lay down, O wea - ry am this dark world's light; Look un - to me, your one, lay down Your head up - on my breast." I morn shall rise, And all your day be bright." I came to Je - sus as I was, So looked to Je - sus, and I found In wea - ry, worn, and sad; I found in him a him my star, my sun; And in that light of rest - ing place, And he has made me glad.
life I'll walk Till trav - 'ling days are done.

Words: Horatius Bonar, 1808-1889, alt. Music: KINGSFOLD, trad. English Melody, adapt. by Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872-1958. Public domain.

Gloria from "Mass of St. Ann"

Glo - ry! Glo - ry to God in the high - est. — Glo - ry! Glo - ry to God in the high - est, and on earth peace to peo - ple of good will.

Gloria (continued—verses)

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father.

Words: from the English translation of The Roman Missal, © 2010, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. Music: Ed Bolduc, © 2011, World Library Publications.

First Reading Amos 6:1, 4–7

Amos, God's prophet, rejected the individualist, consumerist values of lazy, greedy, unjust people who ignore the right of the poor. Their life of ease will be ended.

Psalm "Kingdom Come" (Ps. 146)

Make the king - dom come. Make the dy - ing done!

Make the king - dom be, king - dom of the free! (Fine)

- 1) Sing forever, woman, man. Make the music while we can.
Life from death proclaim O God; rescue from the pain, O God.
- 2) Do not trust the ones who take power over justice sake;
once by death are overcome, all their works so quickly done.
- 3) On this day make new your hope, you who trust in Jacob's God.
Hear the earth and sky, O God. Hear the outcry now, O God.

Second Reading 1 Timothy 6:11–16

Paul exhorted Timothy to seek integrity, love and gentleness. He wrote, "fight the good fight of faith. Hold firm to the everlasting life to which you were called."

Standing at Sunday Liturgy

Because Memorial Church is without kneelers and has a hard, slanted floor, our diocesan-approved custom to express our unity during the eucharistic prayer is that those who are able stand during the eucharistic prayer. If some choose to kneel or need to sit, let us all be at peace and of one heart during the prayer. Also, Catholics of the San Jose Diocese remain standing before communion during "Lord, I am not worthy..."

* Exploring Catholicism / RCIA

Weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00pm, starting September 27

The RCIA (The Rite of the Christian Initiation for Adults) is a weekly class for those:

- Curious about Catholicism,
- Thinking about becoming Catholic,
- Catholics who were not confirmed,
- Anyone who wants an adult perspective on the Catholic Adventure.
- Drop-ins welcomed.

We will be examining scripture, history, theology, morality, spirituality and more. Let's explore! Requirements: Good questions and a prayerful heart!

New announcement

*Encounter Christ Groups for Permanent Community

Encounter Christ Groups for Permanent Community (PCEC) meet in six-week sessions during the fall and during Lent. Meetings are 90 minutes long, and, depending on the group preference, may meet via Zoom or in person. In these popular groups, most use the Lectio Divina method to reflect on and share the challenges and comforts that each gospel brings to us.

The Fall Session begins the week of October 10, and ends November 17. We ask that participants commit to attending all the meetings within the six-week session, as that is how we build community and a shared prayer life. Some groups may choose to hold additional meetings during the rest of the year, but attendance at these meetings is not necessarily expected of all participants.

We will do sign-ups for all Permanent Community members from September 25 through October 6, via the website (<https://db.stanfordcatholic.org/sign-up-for-updates>). Be sure to check the box "I am interested in joining a small group." Contact Nancy Greenfield (ngreenfield875@gmail.com) if you have questions or would like to discuss the program itself.

New announcement

*Reading Group

The next meeting is on Monday, October 24th at 7:30pm (Pacific) via Zoom to discuss Evelyn Waugh's classic Catholic novel Brideshead Revisited. A Zoom link will be sent closer to the date to those on the emailing list. Anyone interested who is not on the contact list can get in touch with Albert Gelpi (agelpi@stanford.edu).

Gospel Luke 16:19–31

Jesus told the story about the rich man and Lazarus so that his listeners would repent and put their faith in God. Then they, too, like Lazarus, will rest in the bosom of Abraham.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ,
his only Son, our Lord,

[bowing:]

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day
he rose again from the dead;

he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand
of God, the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge
the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

 Software and App Design
Volunteers Are Needed Immediately!

CC@S will launch a prototype for new software and an app to improve and expand our ease and effectiveness in communicating, connecting, and supporting our community. Have you ever wanted to design software or an app? We encourage you to take advantage of the opportunity to utilize your skills while collaborating with other CC@S members on this vital project. From start to launch, this project will take approximately two months, sooner if we form a dynamic team.

If you are creative, a team player, motivated, reliable, attentive to details, dynamic, enthusiastic, passionate about your craft, and want to contribute to the communications efforts of our community, contact Sr. Regena at sross@stanford.edu immediately! Could this project be your legacy to the Catholic Community at Stanford?

Receiving Communion

Those who wish to receive communion on the tongue should meet the priest by the angel ambo at the end of communion so that he can easily sanitize his hands when needed. When receiving please present an open and steady hand or tongue.

Receiving Communion in the hand was the practice of Jesus and the early Church. We have one mention of communion on the tongue in the 6th century, but the common practice remained in the hand well into the 9th century. Obviating the need for washing their hands as well as out of a sense of greater respect, communion on the tongue became more common until it became the norm in the 16th century. Our Bishop, wishing to honor people's devotion, has removed his Vatican-sanctioned prohibition of receiving on the tongue.

Communion (4:30) "No Time"

Rise, oh, fathers rise; let's go meet 'em in the skies.
We will hear the angels singing in that morning.
Oh, I really do believe that, just before the end of time
we will hear the angels singing in that morning.

Rise, oh, mothers rise; let's go ... [as above]

No time to tarry here, no time to wait for you.
No time to tarry here, for I'm on my journey home.

Brothers, oh, fare ye well, brothers, oh, fare ye well, brothers, oh, fare ye well, for I'm on my journey home

Sisters, oh, fare ye well ... [as above]

Rise, oh, fathers rise.
We will hear the angels singing in that morning. (On my journey home.)

No time to tarry here ... [as above]

Oh, I really do believe that, just before the end of time
we will hear the angels singing in that morning.
